Asia 350: What is Asia?

Spring 2016 / TTh 12-1:20 / 102 Deady Hall / 4 credits

A critical introduction to the cultures and countries of Asia, this course will also explore ways to think about tradition and modernization, national identities, and globalization through reading and discussion topics such as food, nature, popular culture, gender, religion, philosophy and development.

Fulfills Multicultural requirement (International Cultures), core course for Asian Studies majors/minors, Regional and Human requirements for Geography majors.